

Please continue regulating broadband service. Your regulation allows smaller ISP to participate in an industry they helped create. Although small they provide a positive check and balance to the large phone company giving us a choice in the broadband provider we choose.